

Weekly Sketchbook Criteria:

- Due every week on Tuesday at the start of class. Drawing completed outside of class, like a take-home test.
- Drawn by you, from real life or a reference (photo, internet, magazine), not from memory. Look at what you are drawing.
- Test grade, worth 75% of your grade.
- Label each drawing with the week and date. (ex. Week 1, 10-30-22).
- Some drawings will require imagination and creativity, be original!

Grading:*Poor- very simple, no details, little effortStrong- realistic, detailed, clear effort

- Follow directions and FILL the page at least 75%, no tiny drawings.
- Must show a strong effort and investment of time, include details. Spend about 15 minutes on the drawings.
- Late Work is accepted up to 2 days late, -2pts per day late. Work that is not complete at the start of class is also late.
- Failure to follow directions will result in reduced credit.

Week:

1. Create a value (shade) drawing of your room in the style of Van Gogh's bedroom. Include details and shading.
2. Draw a scene from your favorite movie. Include details and shading.
3. Draw with your non-dominant hand, and then use your dominant hand to add color, texture, pattern, and more,
4. Create a self-portrait using contour lines, no shading. Be very detailed and outline with black pen or marker. (look this up on Google for ideas if you are confused.)
5. Create a visual page on an author. Include the names of their work, brief bio on the artist (where they are from, education, etc.), 5 facts about the artist.
6. Fill a page with drawings of your favorite things - i.e. favorite movies, favorite foods, etc. Add artistic embellishments - pictures, doodles, colors, lettering styles, etc. Include details and shading.
7. Create a page in the style of a famous artist. Include the artist's name. Include details and shading.
